Army Chief Favors Added War Push

6-11-66

KINGSTON, Okla., June 11 (UPI)—Gen. Harold K. Johnson, Army Chief of Staff, said today it would be foolish to expand the war and destroy North Vietnam's economic and military capabilities.

He told the Oklahoma Press Association this would only double the price of the war since the United States would have to ultimately rebuild what it destroyed.